Welcome to New Orleans and the 24th Annual ATA Mid-Year Meeting.

We appreciate our sponsors Deloitte, E&Y, KPMG, PwC, and Grant Thornton. We have representatives from all these firms at the meeting – please help me thank them personally.

Nancy Nichols and her committee have put together a fantastic program including a wide variety of research sessions, opportunities to improve our teaching skills, and updates from those working in the profession. Deloitte partner Nathan Andrews will speak on trends in corporate tax departments. Deloitte M&A partner Russ Hamilton will discuss tax and operational challenges after a merger. George Plesko will moderate a panel of tax directors sharing their daily challenges and view of the future. Saturday morning begins with John Barrick moderating the Legislative Update with Lindy Paull (PwC), Tom Stout (KPMG), Eric Solomon (E&Y) and Michelle Johns (Deloitte). Our luncheon speaker, Dr. Janet Speyrer, will focus on New Orleans’ recovery after Katrina and the impact of the BP oil spill.

We extend special thanks to KPMG for their continued support of the doctoral consortium, which precedes this meeting. This year we welcome 42 doctoral students to the consortium, and I appreciate Andy Cuccia, chair, continuing this excellent tradition. I would also like to thank the Ernst & Young Foundation, which has provided travel funds for the doctoral students to attend the consortium. Please make all our doctoral students and new faculty feel welcome in the ATA.

John Phillips (JATA editor), Amy Dunbar (Research Resources Committee Chair) and Blaise Sonnier (Legal Research Chair) and their committees received record submissions this year, so they made tough choices among excellent papers. In our concurrent teaching sessions, Brigitte Muehlmann and the Teaching Resources Committee selected eight classroom cases for presentation that will energize your courses. Shelley Rhoades-Catanach will moderate a discussion about teaching and employing the next generation with Dot Proux (E&Y), Christine Griffith (KPMG) and our own John Phillips and Lillian Mills. And this year’s ATA/Deloitte Teaching Innovation award winner – Ross Bengel - will present “Using Documentary Film, News Segments and Other Non-fiction Video Resources to Enhance Tax Courses.”

This is the ATA’s first time back to New Orleans after Katrina. The city offers world famous music, food, and culture. I hope you will take time to enjoy everything it has to offer. Finally, thank you for supporting the ATA. This support helps make the ATA the premier section of the American Accounting Association.

Tim Rupert, ATA President

CPE Sessions

8:15 - 9:45 am  CPE Session – Trends in Corporate Tax Departments
Pelican

Moderator: Bob Gardner (Brigham Young University)
Presenter: Nathan Andrews, Partner and National Practice Leader (Deloitte’s Tax Management Consulting practice)

What is on the mind of the tax executive today? Is it tax planning and compliance? Or is it access to quality data, automated processes, the latest in tax technology? The answer: all of the above with a heavy emphasis on the non-traditional. Nathan Andrews discusses trends in the area of data management, process, technology and organization and how the tax executive of today balances vision for the tax department with corporate priorities and skill set gaps.

10:15 - 11:45 am  CPE Session – After the Merger: Tax and Operational Challenges
Pelican

Moderator: Charlene Henderson (Mississippi State)
Presenter: Russ Hamilton, Partner (Deloitte)

While traditional M&A tax education focuses on tax-free and taxable acquisition rules, these are only the beginning of the tax issues associated with M&A activity. Russ will discuss technical transaction issues, integration issues, tax aspects of business process change, and legal entity simplification associated with M&A.

Call for Papers
2013 JATA Conference

The 19th Journal of the American Taxation Association Conference will be held in conjunction with the ATA Midyear Meeting in San Diego, California, on February 22-23, 2013. Original papers addressing interesting and relevant tax issues will be considered for the conference. Papers submitted to the conference will not automatically be considered for publication in JATA. You are free to submit the paper to any journal. A paper under review (or being revised for resubmission) at another journal as of the conference submission deadline may not be submitted.

All research methods (including, but not limited to, archival, analytical, behavioral, experimental, and field studies) will be considered. Contingent on suitable revisions in accordance with JATA’s normal review procedures, papers submitted to JATA and accepted for the conference will be published in a regular issue of the journal, along with discussants’ comments. Conference papers will be made available to conference participants in advance of the midyear meeting through the ATA web site. Papers submitted to JATA but not accepted for the conference will be treated as regular submissions to JATA. Authors will be notified of the conference selection decision by December 14, 2012.

Manuscripts must be submitted through the Manuscript Submission and Peer Review System for JATA, located at http://jata.peerx-press.org. The site contains detailed instructions regarding the preparation of files for submission. To ensure anonymous review, please note that the article title page (with author names) must be in a separate file from the manuscript text. All manuscripts must comply with the JATA editorial policies and style guidelines. Please indicate that the paper is being submitted for the Conference and whether you are also submitting the paper for publication in JATA by checking the appropriate box on the submission website.

To be considered, papers must be received no later than November 2, 2012. Contact Professor Phillips by email at jata@business.uconn.edu if file compatibility or electronic submission presents a problem. The submission fee of $75 in U.S. funds should be paid by credit card following instructions provided on the AAA web site (http://aaahq.org/pubs/author.htm). The submission fee is only required if the paper is to be considered for publication in JATA. Questions about the submission process may be emailed to John Phillips at jata@business.uconn.edu.
